About

Humanitarian Dinner:

In 1946, Mosaic Miami, then known as MCCJ, began honoring Miamians with its Humanitarian Silver Medallion Award, selecting leaders whose inspiring involvement in our community aligned with our mission of building an inclusive Miami.

Every year, we unite the community in celebration of Miami's diversity and in appreciation of those who have helped to build a more welcoming, inclusive, just and cooperative society. See below the list of previous Silver Medallion recipients who have made significant contributions to inclusivity, diversity, and community welfare in Miami.

Making a Difference,
One Conversation at a Time:

92	Years in Action
600	Camp MetroTown Graduates
290	Emerging Leaders Participants
103	Silver Medallion Honorees,
900+	Interfaith Gatherings

Dollars Raised Support:

Camp MetroTown. Mosaic Miami's flagship youth leadership experience, offering Miami-Dade high school students a transformative residential program that goes far beyond a typical summer camp. During the course of the week, the program unites rising leaders from varied backgrounds and unique perspectives to engage in candid conversations about their communities, culture, Miami's history, and leadership styles, in a fun and safe learning environment. Through immersive community-building simulations, guest speakers, and collaborative workshops, delegates develop better emotional intelligence, overcome personal barriers, build lifelong friendships, and acquire the practical tools necessary to drive meaningful, inclusive social impact in their schools and communities.
